はけいいはは

tr

25

的少年時後日本日本日

ly and in

IC

he

, Sept. 18, 196, ven, that alway vertifement, bonourable to praying that inhibitory of the infler, for the gofet of the gofet parochial expension of westry.

o an act of the od Mary part October 8, 17th, en, that after 6 tifement, a per eneral allembly may be passed, trish aforestic rish aforefaid ebe housing.

ARRIS, regt.

severn, taken fe, appears to ands high, bria

iomething like owner may le erty and page

of Robert Far

n Charles-count

the right and

ear, has a mid defired to pro-him away w

of the subscribe

of Annapolis of February is ne years old the one hind for trock C D, par head when rok fill give information the owner we one hundre

ve one hundred as curing the the ice, shall recons, paid by WATSON.

om the lubic

h, a negro ma cars of age, in abouts, a like ted negro, but fts much of h eing a comm commen negr c; he has been de will perhap to vessel; has an ches of country ore, the breech nor thirt that the taid name im to that I p warded for the em OKSTER. too imall, med thereby.

f westry, COBS, regifte, FFICE, Sept. 23, 27th ven, that bills fice for exchangills of credit co

ARYLAND GAZETTE. ************

A . Y. NOVEMBER 3, 1780. R D

LONDO

OVERNOR Hutchinfon is now G dropped down dead. It is charita-ble to hope that his fins may be buthe ble to hope that his fins may be bu-gle recorded in his epitaple. His miffepre-ations have ad ed fuel to the unnatural war that has been kindled against America. Ex-ters are necessary; and there is reason to wish, all incendiaries may not escape into the re without a previous appearance either at 19th to roon the scassold. [These are the ments of a Briton; what ought those of an evican to be! de mortuis nil nist bonum is the ments of a Briton; what ought those of an erican to be! de mortuis nil nifi bonum is the min of humanity. The prefent age must grate his memory, and the impartial pen of try will transmit his name, blackening downwards on the lease of time, le fee equal object of eternal shame." BATH. June 14. On Friday evening last the fe fiantic spirit of destruction which has two time city of London into such contusion, an to display itself here. About twilight a more of boys, headed by a gentte han's fertil, crying out." No popery," gave the alarm, ditheir numbers increasing as they ran through incets, before 9 o'clock they formed a body stretal hundreds: previous to which several should be should be should be soon to be should be soon to which several should be should be soon to be should be should be soon to be should be soon t can Cothelick chapel near St. James's pacan Cothelick chapet near st. James's pa-te, and had begun to break the windows, he parties being foon joined, they broke open e doors, totally destroyed the influe of the pet, the materials and ornaments of which by let on fire on the parade, and show were olly confumed. They then easied the flour-folding, inhabited by Dr. Brewer the priest, sich was very elegantly finished and furnished the occasional residence, it is faid, of lord windel; after demolishing the windows and ich was very elegantly finished and surnished the occasional residence, it is said, ot lord rudel; after demolishing the windows and adow frames (which appeared to be done by a to desperate fellows, strangers, who came hinstruments for the purpose) they threw all e seat and elegant surniture, linen, books, into the stames; risked the cellars, and drank safed all the wines and other liquors. The sasted all the wines and other liquors. The sasted all the wines and other liquors. The sasted at their authority was now inestactual, major observed, with a sew of the city volunteers sally collected, went into the chapel, and reastedly prevented its being set on fire. About if past eleven, the drum beat to arms, and out 20 more of the volunteers, headed by pain Duperre, marched to the scene of action, the bayonets fixed, though without powder dail; the officers, entering first, were groffly said and the volunteers then to looked with it intrepidity through a shower of binets, sintered wood, sirebands, &c. which wounded with officers was shot dead by a pistol, med, as supposed, at one of the officers. This exaperated the mob, who thought he was only one of the volunteers, that they attacked as most furiously, and their muskets not being sured, they retreated in good order. It was sownear one o'clock, when the scene became susfui; the priest's house, the chapel, and at tenements adjoining, were all on fire about to, and at sour nothing but the bare walls to see the magnificates saw the impossibility should be a suppossed to the magnificates saw the impossibility should be a supposed to the magnificates saw the impossibility should be a supposed to the magnificates saw the impossibility should be a supposed to the magnificates saw the impossibility should be a supposed to the magnificates saw the impossibility should be a supposed to the magnificates saw the impossibility should be a supposed to the magnificates saw the impossibility should be a supposed to the same and the model of the same and the model of the same and on this occasion; they understood from the messenger, that the from was on tire in several places, and how desperate and larged body they were to encounter, which the slames they saw from the neighbouring hills feemed to confirm; yet the danger only served to hasten them to our relief. Most of the corporation staid up all our relief. Most of the corporation staid up all night, to watch the city and receive the officers on their arrival, whom they very properly invited to an elegant dinner. By the disposition or the troop and pelice officers, every thing here is now periodly quiet. It is universally agreed that the leaders in the riot were persons sent from London; the gutting and firing the chapel was executed with amazing haste and regularily, and not a single person in the city was insured, except those who attempted to seize them. The rioters did not exceed three or four hundred in number, though the spectators were them. The rioters did not exceed three or four hundred in number, though the spectators were as many thousands.

It feems that the villains who have chiefly headed the riots in London, have a lift of every Roman Catholick chapel and school throughout the kingdom, particularly of every new one, and have dispatched their emissaries to go from town to town and deftroy them. It is therefore necessary for the magnitrates or every city, from the unnappy example of this, to be most itrictly on their guard, and defire the inn and lodging on their guard, and define the lift and loughag house keepers to give notice of every inspicious person that comes there, particularly, as the suddenness of this disaster was such, that the utmost prudence could neither foresee or pre-

Several persons, who were active in destroying the farnitum and firing the buildings, are now in cuttody.

PROVIDENCE, OA. 11.

We learn that the infamous Henry Smith, who seved as a conductor to the late major Andrie, has been tried and condemned, but that his execution is for some reason delayed.

A gentleman from Bolton informs, that a small privateer belonging to Cape Anne, lately cut a large thip out or a harbour near Hallitax, mounting twenty-fix nine pounders; and that the same privateer had also taken a brig, and was arrived off Cape Anne with her prizes.

The following is a copy of a letter from major Andrie to his excellency mural Washington, previous to bis execution.

SIR.

" Buoyed above the fear of death, by the conclousness of a life spent in the pursuit of honour, and fully tentiole that it has at no time been stained by any action, which at this serious moment could give me remorte—I have to solicit your excellency, if there is you thing in my character which excites your esteem; if ought in my circumstances can impress you with compassion; that I may be permitted to die the death of a foldier:—It is my last request and I hope it will be granted. hope it will be granted.

I have the honour to be, &c.

FISH-KILL, Od. 19.
By the arrival of yesterday's pott from Albany, we have it reported, That Sir John Johnston had, with a party said to be about 500 men, come down the Mohawk river, and advanced within fix miles of Johnstown; when, training that a party of our three months men lay there, he contented himself with burning a few houses, killing and carrying off some inhabitants. Another party of about 800 men, commanded by major Carleton, nephew to general Carleton, came down the Lakes from at. John's and advanced to Fort Anne, which was garrisoned by killing and carrying off tome inhabitants. Another party of about 800 men, commanded by hoteleperate a mob being quelled by the civil provided party for the commanding officers of the troops of the troops of the commanding officers of the troops of the tro

PHILADELPHIA, Odeber 24.

Extraß of a letter from his excellency governor Jef-jerson, of Virginia, to the president of congress, anted Richmond, Oslobar 15, 1780. 6 o'clock, P. M.

Burk county, 2d Odober, 1780.

Burk county, 2d OBober, 1780.

SIR,

"I am, at prefent, about 70 miles from Salisbury, in the fork of the Catabaw, with about 450 horfemen, in pursuit of colonel Ferguton. On my crossing the Catabaw river I dispatched to different quarters for intelligence, and this evening I was favoured with this news, which you may depend on: That colonel Clark, of the itate of Georgia, with 100 rife-men, forced his way through South-Carolina to Georgia. On his route thither, being joined by 700 men, he proceeded to the town or Augusta, and las taken it with a large quantity of goods; but not finding it prudent to continue there, he has retreated to the upper parts of South-Carohas retreated to the upper parts of South-Caro-lina, in Ninety Six diffrict, and made a stand with 800 brave men.
"This moment another of my expresses is arrived from colonels M'Dowell and Shelby: they were on their march, near Burk courthouse, with 1500 brave mountainmen, and col. Cleveland was within 10 miles of them with 800 men, and was to form a junction with them this day. I expect to join them to morrow, in pur-fuit of colonel Ferguion, and under the direction of Heaven, I hope to be able to render your honour a good account of him in a few days. I am, &c."

Signed JAMES WILLIAMS.

Signed JAMES WILLIAMS.
Major-general Gates.

Hil forrough 12th Odober, 1780.

SIR.

"This instant I received the great and glorious news contained in the incloied letter from ous news contained in the inclosed letter from brigadier-general Davison to general Summer, who directly dispatched it to me by express. We are now more than even with the enemy. The moment the supplies for the troops here arrive from Taylor's ferry, I shall proceed with the whole to the Yadkin. General Smallwood and colonel Morgan are on their way to that not the latter, with the light infactor, was post; the latter, with the light infantry, was yesterday advanced 18 miles beyond Guilford court-house; the former, with the cavalry, lay, lat night, 13 miles on this side that place. I desire your excellency will forthwith dispatch copies of all the letters I now send you to the president of congress. I am, &c.
HORATIOGATES."

Govanor Jefferson.

Dear S I R, I have the pleasure to enclose to you a large packet of dispatches taken yesterday, at M'Cappin's creek, on the way to Camden, by a small party of my brigade. A detachment of 120, horse, under Rutledge and Dickson, almost surrounded Charlotte yesterday, attacked a picket at colonel Polk's mill, and at a certain Mr.

"SIR "I do myself the pleasure of congratulating your excellency on the small dawn of good fortune which at length appears in the South, as you will find by the dispatches I have the honour of enclosing to you, and which I this moment received from general Gates."